2.	Structure of the Board to add value
2.1	The Board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address Board succession issues and to ensure that the Board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	Will comply	The Board has not established such a committee at this time because the Company does not have any employees, and the formation of such a committee would be inefficient given the Company's size and nature and accordingly would not serve to protect or enhance the interest of shareholders. Board nomination and remuneration issues will be dealt with by the Board as a whole, on an annual basis. Should the size of the Company change, the Board will consider establishing a separate nomination committee. The Board Policy seeks to ensure that the Board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.
2.2	A listed entity should have and disclose a Board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership. 2.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the Board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 of the Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations but the Board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the Board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	Complies	Section 9 of the Company's Prospectus and its Annual Report sets out the Directors which the Board considers to be independent, the interests of each Director and the length of service of each director.
2.4	A majority of the Board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	Complies	The Board is comprised of six Directors, three of whom are considered to be independent. Section 9 of the Company's Prospectus and the Annual Report discloses information as to the independence of the Directors. The structure of the board was deliberately set with three directors from the Manager (non-independent directors) and three independent directors, to show the commitment and alignment of the Manager to the success of the Company. In order to ensure the appropriate corporate governance with this board structure, the board has adopted an enduring policy where any matter before the board that involves the Manager will be considered by the board without the non-independent directors being present.
